In the event of termination for default, the Contractor will only be paid the Contract price for supplies delivered and accepted, or services performed in accordance with the manner of performance set forth in the Contract. If, after termination for failure to fulfill Contract obligations, it is determined that the Contractor was not in default, the rights and obligations of the parties shall be the same as if the termination had been issued for the convenience of CATA.

(c) Termination Due to Insufficient Funds. If at any time during the term of the Contract the CATA Governing Board makes a determination that CATA has insufficient funds with which to carry out its performance and obligations under the Contract, then CATA may terminate the Contract by delivering a notice of termination to the Contractor. The Contractor shall be paid its costs, including Contract closeout costs, and profit on Work performed up to the time of termination. The Contractor shall promptly submit its claim for final payment to CATA.

(e) Damages upon Termination. Any damages to be assessed to the Contractor as a result of a default termination or any claim by Contractor for costs resulting from a termination for convenience by CATA, a termination due to insufficient funds by CATA, or a termination due to a failure to receive a grant or other funding device by CATA will be computed and allowable in accordance with federal regulations in effect at the time of termination.

In connection with any appeal proceeding under this clause, the Contractor shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard and to offer evidence in support of its appeal.

Pending a final decision of the dispute, the Contractor shall proceed diligently with the performance of the contract and in accordance with CATA's decision.

- 14. CATA Warranty The Contractor agrees that the supplies or services furnished under this contract shall be covered by the most favorable warranties the Contractor gives any customer for such equipment and that the rights and remedies provided herein are in addition to and do not limit any rights afforded to CATA by any other clause of this contract.
